

Fiber Optic Displacement in Senegal

Overview

Senegal's fiber optic network coverage is projected to reach 65% by 2026, enhancing internet speeds nationwide. Between December 2020 and December 2024, the number of lines increased from 177,363 to 747,163, more than quadrupling. 26% growth is the result of improved infrastructure, thanks to massive investments in fiber deployment and Fixed Wireless Access (FWA), which have supported growing demand. Senegal has recorded a 321. 26% increase in fixed broadband subscriptions over four years, with the number of users rising from 177,363 in December 2020 to 747,163 by December 2024. Since liberalization of the sector in the 1990s, the country has transformed into a leader in West Africa for developed and modern telecommunications infrastructure. Authorities aim to reduce duplication, lower investment costs, and expand high-speed internet coverage. Fiber sharing aligns with Senegal's national digital strategy targeting. This page contains more information about the Fiber Optic Cable System, a specific investigation on how cellular activity might be used to map poverty at high resolution, and a brief history of telecom in Senegal to give the analysis context. Mobile data is incredibly popular in Senegal.
